ART + CULTURE + KNOWLEDGE = A REAL EXPERIENCE®

What is Kunstareal München?

Munich’s Kunstrealf art quarter lies right in the heart of Munich and, with its museums and universities, is one of the most important cultural locations in Europe. An area measuring 500 × 500 metres, in the middle of the lively district of Maxvorstadt, visitors encounter a unique blend of art, culture and knowledge.

The Kunstrealf has developed over 200 years and today presents over 5,000 years of cultural history. Located between the magnificent squares of Königsplatz and Theresienstraße, the Kunstrealf offers an extraordinary variety of museums with exhibits that range from impressive ancient Egyptian artefacts and antiquities to modern art. 18 museums and collections, over 65 galleries, six internationally renowned academic institutions and several cultural organisations lie within walking distance of each other.

Kunstareal’s Architectural Highlights

Wandering through the Kunstrealf’s architectural masterpieces is as impressive as it is enjoyable. The vast Kunstrealf, which is the result of an urban design competition organized by the city of Munich, offers a unique and diverse mix of architectural styles. The Kunstrealf’s buildings are a testimony to the municipality’s commitment to preserving the city’s cultural heritage.

The Kunstrealf is a place where art, architecture, and knowledge come together to create a unique and inspiring experience. Visitors can take part in guided tours, attend events, and explore the area on their own. The Kunstrealf is a place where people of all ages and backgrounds can come together to discover the beauty and diversity of art and culture.

Visit Kunstrealf München for a truly unforgettable experience. Whether you’re a student, a professional, or simply a visitor, you’ll find something to suit your interests and preferences.
